Betty Vincent Gives Advice on Courtship and Marriage

The Girl Who Works for a Living.

Y dear girls who have to work for your living, do not stay out too late in the evening. Now that the warm spring is here, it is a temptation to take somewhat longer walks. Yet, remember An English Girl. if you are working for your living, you have to work in

So that is why I am reminding you of the advice I gave girl, but she will not marry me unless you last winter. My dear girls, let your callers go home We go to England to live. I wish you young lady anything more substantial at half past ten. That is late enough for young people would advise me what to do."
